Ohio School Boards Association Northwest Region to hold fall conference

TIFFIN — More than 150 school board members, administrators, staff, students and guests from across northwest Ohio are expected to meet Oct. 3 at Tiffin Middle School for the Ohio School Boards Association (OSBA) Northwest Region Fall Conference. The school is in the Tiffin City School District.

The conference will feature updates from OSBA officers and staff and numerous awards and honors. The region will recognize outstanding school board members, veteran board members and schools that have earned special honors from the Ohio Department of Education.

Other recognitions will include the Excellence in Community Service, Humanitarian and Who's Who Excellence in Outstanding Leadership awards. Additional honors will go to Ohio Teacher of the Year finalists and the Bonnie Eddy Educational Supply and Book Grant recipient. A highlight of the evening will be the presentation of the Neil Pohlmann Award of Excellence in Education.

The Tiffin Columbian High School Choir, led by director Kimberly Ridge, will provide entertainment, while dinner will be prepared and served by Vanguard-Sentinel Career & Technology Centers culinary arts and hospitality management students.

For details on the awards and recognitions, contact Northwest Regional Manager Dr. Judy Jackson May at the phone number or email address above.

Twenty counties comprise the OSBA Northwest Region: Allen, Auglaize, Defiance, Erie, Fulton, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Huron, Lucas, Mercer, Ottawa, Paulding, Putnam, Sandusky, Seneca, Van Wert, Williams, Wood and Wyandot. OSBA's other regions are Central, Northeast, Southeast and Southwest.

Founded in 1955, the Ohio School Boards Association leads the way to educational excellence by serving Ohio's public school board members and the diverse districts they represent through superior service, unwavering advocacy and creative solutions.
