Ohio School Boards Association Northeast Region to host fall conference

WADSWORTH — More than 130 school board members, administrators, staff, students and guests from across northeastern Ohio are expected to meet in Wadsworth Oct. 2 for the Ohio School Boards Association (OSBA) Northeast Region Fall Conference.

The conference will feature updates from OSBA officers and staff and numerous recognitions and awards. The region will honor exceptional school programs and schools; exemplary school board members and school volunteers; and the region's outstanding school board team, superintendent, treasurer and classified staff member.

Special awards to be presented include the Roger L. Samuelson Award and the Friend of Public Education Award. Both honors recognize outstanding contributions to Northeast Region students and public education. For more information on the awards and recognitions, contact Northeast Regional Manager Reno Contipelli, whose phone number and email address are listed above.

Nineteen counties comprise the OSBA Northeast Region: Ashland, Ashtabula, Carroll, Columbiana, Cuyahoga, Geauga, Harrison, Holmes, Jefferson, Lake, Lorain, Mahoning, Medina, Portage, Stark, Summit, Trumbull, Tuscarawas and Wayne. OSBA's other regions are Central, Northwest, Southeast and Southwest.

Founded in 1955, the Ohio School Boards Association leads the way to educational excellence by serving Ohio's public school board members and the diverse districts they represent through superior service, unwavering advocacy and creative solutions.
